VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1867. NO. 63.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

EXTRACTS FROM THE SPEECH OF HORATIO SEYMOUR,

EX-GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK,

IN THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION AT ALBANY, OCTOBER 3, 1867.

Gentlemen of the Convention:

We are startled by the cry of the leaders of the party holding political power, that our country is in great peril. After wading through the bloodshed of civil war, that peace which we hailed with joy, and which they told us was to give strength and prosperity to our land, brings new danger to the Republic. We cannot, if we would, escape from confronting the problems of the day. Neither safety, honor, nor patriotism will suffer us to stand dumb or inactive in the dark hour of danger. We have put down rebellion; we are now struggling with revolution. The first was sectional; the last is universal. The first sought to divide our country; the last threatens to destroy it.

CRIME AT WASHINGTON.

At the national capital we see that the party which placed in power the present Chief Magistrate now charges him with treason, and many of its leaders have instilled into the public mind the horrible suspicion that he was in league with the murderers who struck down the life which stood between him and the Executive chair. The world is aghast while it hears so foul an accusation uttered in the halls of the Legislature without rebuke. In the House of Representatives members make against each other charges of judicial murder, robbery, theft, and corruption. A military member alleges his legal associate plotted the death and carried to the gallows an innocent woman for partisan purposes. The accuser is charged in return with the fact of going to the war a poor man and coming back a poor general and a rich man; laden, not with the spoils of victory, but plunder, stolen from those placed under his protection. The Congressman who stands up as the accuser of the President is confronted by his own letter, showing his utter rottenness. We are saved from the hateful task of laying bare the frauds and crimes of those who are administering our Government.—God's law for punishing the guilty makes them become mutual accusers. In the hate and rage which ever springs up among criminals, all are anxious to turn upon and convict their fellow.

IF REVOLUTION BEGINS!

While the Senate has done less to shock the world and bring our Government into contempt, it has been the forum where principles have been asserted and a policy pursued revolutionary in tendency and far-reaching in their influences to keep alive disorder and political convulsions. In its blindness it is striking suicidal blows against its own existence. Its members have become the ruling power in our Government—vested with equal rights of law-making with the popular branch. They can also decide upon all treaties, which, within their scope, rise above the statutes. They control the appointing power; for the vast patronage of Government can only be exercised with their consent. They can, as a judicial body, depose the President or Vice President, elected by the people, and put one of their own members into the Executive chair. They hold their places by terms longer than those of any other elective branch of Government, yet they do not in the nature of their organization represent the people in form or fact. They are chosen by Legislatures, not by the people. States having, by the census of 1860, less than one quarter of the population of our country, appoint a majority of its members.—Nine States, whose citizens are more than one-half of this people, are represented by only one-fourth of its members. Thus made up, and wielding a power over-topping that of all other branches, they should pause and ponder well before opening the flood-gates of revolution. Yet, if these members sought to have the Senate rubbed out of the constitutional scheme, they could not do acts more hateful to the people, or give reasons more powerful for its overthrow than their own teaching with regard to the rights of impartial suffrage, and by their action in the face of their teachings. Colorado, which may be overrun by hostile Indians before the year passes, which cannot, by force of its numbers, uphold the rudiment of a State, to-day balances in the scale the four millions of people of New York. It was admitted merely to gain two votes in a struggle with the Executive. But a bolder act is in view, unless this dangerous game to get power over the majority by a rotten borough system is stopped. Twenty Senators are to be admitted from ten States lately in rebellion, not as representatives of the white people, for they are disfranchised; not of the blacks, for it is indiscreet to claim that a race who are declared by Congress to be unable to take care of themselves, and are placed under the guardianship of the Freedmen's Bureau and military chiefs, would, as a body, know of the existence of such representatives; but they are to be admitted because they hold the views of the majority of the Senators, and because they are sent to Washington by their agents. These Senators mean to be their own constituents, to become a close corporation, and to have more representatives of their own selection than the majority of the people of the country living in nine States. About sixty Republican Senators will, beyond their own votes, have in the twenty members sent by the Freedmen's Bureau, more representatives than the sixteen millions of American people living in New York, Pensylvania, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Ohio and Missouri. Not content with holding in subjection the people of the South, they mean to extend, in the name of the negro, their domination over the North and South alike. It would seem that this madness was enough to make their destruction sure. But here, after acts like these, they solemnly declare they are in favor of what they call manhood suffrage. Be it so, but with it must go manhood representation. Manhood suffrage must not be used to destroy the right of the majority of the people of this country. If it is the natural right of a negro in Florida to have a vote, it is not his right to have it count forty-fold more in the Senate of the United States than that of a man in New York. If it is the natural right of a man in New York to have a vote, it is also his natural right to have it count as much in the controlling branch of the Government as that of a man in Rhode Island. If this revolution is begun, it must go on to its logical, just end. It must not roll on the necks of the majority of the American people and stop there: but numbers must be represented, not rotten boroughs or sham States. We implore Senators not to begin revolution. Be content with your vast powers. Your organization is at war with impartial suffrage and impartial representation. If you continue your usurpation the country may not be content with driving you back within constitutional limits. It may go farther, and acting upon doctrines you assert, it may crush you out and make another Senate based in truth upon manhood suffrage. The country needs peace, but if you will have revolution, it cannot stop at any chalk line you may mark out. The nine States with a majority of the people, with Iowa, Minnesota, and Michigan, all of which are now virtually disfranchised in your body—for they are controlled by the representatives of a quarter of our population—if our Government is to be reshaped, will have their full rights. They are not suffering merely from theoretical wrongs. The destruction of the carrying trade of New York and the overtaxation of the Northwest show how unequal distribution of power makes unequal burthens. During the war of the rebellion we felt the exertion of the Senatorial power upon the weak head of the Enrolling Bureau in fixing the quotas of States. While their purposes were to save their own constituents from the sacrifices of war, by so doing they threw upon other States the cost of life and blood. In New York this grew into abuses so flagrant that even partisan passions could not be blind to the outrages. But the Northwestern States suffered the most severely from this injustice. I have the official proof, that while the average quotas in the Congressional districts of Massachusetts and New Hampshire were 2,167.

In Illinois they were	4,004
In Indiana they were	3,348
In Wisconsin they were	3,173
In Michigan they were	3,047

We ask the people of New England if it is not time for them to stop the stupid malice of their Senators; to put a stop to the teaching that New England Senatorial power is in violation of natural rights?—We suffer in New York by the present constitutional law; but we seek peace. We wish to uphold the constitutional powers of all the States. We remember the glorious part they bore in the revolutionary contest. If time has changed their comparative population, we do not wish to strip them of any political power. We implore them not to teach doctrines which must in their ends be destructive to them, and hurtful to the peace of the country.

OUR ALARMING SOCIAL CONDITION.

What is the social condition of the country? I shall speak only of the situation of the North. It is not possible to fasten the Republican party to any stand-point as to the condition of the Southern people. They are in or out of the Union as partisan purposes demand. They must carry constitutional amendments, but they are punished if they vote. They must do their political duties, but they are held to be criminal if they take part in public affairs. The Southern people have to deal with political problems more bewildering than the theological dogmas which are set forth in the verse:

"You can and you can't,
You will and you won't;
You'll be damned if you do,
And you'll be damned if you don't."

The social state of our country is alarming. The public is startled with unusual violence and murder throughout our land. Men, and women, too, kill those who have done them no wrong; life and property have become unsafe. Our people learned to do these things from those who should have taught reverence for the laws. The seeds which were sown when men were imprisoned, mobbed, or murdered, because they honestly differed from the party in power, are now springing up in abundant harvest of crime, which plagues and curses those who were actors in violence, or consenting witnesses to outrage upon their neighbors. If, when an unworthy Secretary of State boasted to the representatives of kingly power that American liberty was a sham, and that he could do what Britain's monarch dare not—imprison without warrant, and punish without trial—weak and wicked vanity had been fittingly whipped by justice, the floodgates of violence would not have been opened. But he was upheld, and a horde of robbers and brutal men, drunk with unusual power, were organized as spies and detectives, and let loose upon the public.

The spirit of cowardly and criminal violence that was sent out from the Department of State, in time stalked back into the chamber of the Secretary in the foul form of the assassin. Murder, robbery, and arson afflict the people who did not care what wrongs were done to their neighbors. If we would avert God's judgment, let us all now try to bring back reverence for the laws which our fathers left us as a heritage, and which we have wasted.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1867.

GOV. GRAHAM—THE REGISTER.

Our neighbor, the Register, professes to be surprised that Gov. Graham should have been invited to address a meeting composed of Conservative men, who advocate the restoration of the harmony and Union of the States and of the Constitution of the United States. It need not surprise our neighbor, if the Editors of the Sentinel should do many things, which will not exactly comport with the views of the Register. Gov. Graham is a representative man and a well known and influential Conservative, and so were all the gentlemen who were invited.—That they were known to differ on some points of public policy constituted no objection, in our mind, to extending an invitation to all of them, or, indeed, to every Conservative man in the State, to be with us. For it is a period when honest differences of opinion may exist among gentlemen aiming at the same common results of peace, harmony and prosperity to the State and to the nation, and who are known to favor an early settlement of the difficulties of the country on the basis of the Constitution, when they meet to consult and counsel, in order to arrive at the very best conclusions for effecting the object.

We dwell in "no pent up Utica." The Conservative platform is wide enough for every true patriot and lover of the Constitutional government, bequeathed to us by our fathers, to stand upon. If Mr. Goodloe, and his coadjutors, had claimed to be Conservative men; if they had intimated that they would not consider it damaging to the interests of their peculiar phase of Republicanism to have taken part in a Conservative meeting, we should not have been backward in inviting them. Indeed, if they are Conservatives, they were invited. Why were they not there to participate?

Gov. Graham could not attend the meeting. He knew that the Editors of the Sentinel, and other gentlemen who would be present, differed with him, yet his characteristic integrity and purity would not allow him simply to endorse the objects of the meeting, and at the same time conceal his views, especially after his opinions had been sought by so many of his friends in a more private way. We, therefore, felt it due to him, as we would to any other gentleman under the same circumstances, to publish his letter without comment at the time, leaving the public to form their own conclusions. His views, so far as they go, are now public property, and they are liable to honest criticism and animadversion. Gov. Graham will not object to a fair criticism by the Register or any one else.

We will take this occasion to say, that our own views are neither modified nor changed by the published views of Gov. Graham, as to the policy to be pursued by the Conservatives. It is a matter in which every man should act for himself, assuming the full measure of his own responsibility. Some weeks ago, we stated it as our conviction, that no human efforts could defeat a Convention in any of the States, nor were we disposed to do so, as a matter of policy, if we could. What the Conservative men in the State must look to, is the utter defeat of the Radical candidates for the Convention. It must be done by all legitimate and proper means, and for this every Conservative man, whether disfranchised or not, must labor.

We repeat what we have often said: When we can certainly elect sound Conservative men for the Convention, let it be done in every instance; but, where this cannot be done, let every Conservative unite upon a sound hearted man, pledged to a safe, anti-Radical policy, who claims to be a moderate Republican, in order to defeat a Radical!

PUNCTILIOUSNESS.—Our friend of the Old North State still harps upon the punctiliousness of the Sentinel. When we start on a journey, we always like to be sure which way a by-path will lead us. If we go down a dark cellar, we prefer to have a bright light and not trust to a dark lantern even. If our position is punctilious, we have failed to see it. We think we have been as liberal and as explicit as we could well be. Our charity seeketh not her own good, at the expense of the good of others. Hence, we objected to such a party coalition or bargain with moderate Republicans as would seriously damage their influence at Washington with the Republican party. That is the full extent of our punctiliousness, and no further. To show that we love our neighbors as ourselves, we proposed to vote for them, when we could not do better to promote the public good by voting for ourselves. To take our neighbors in preference, or to love them better than ourselves, is not required of us. Moreover, we knew perfectly well we might appoint State Conventions and invite them, but they would never come. Republicanism, however moderate, unless we are totally deceived, holds firmly to the natural, inherent and intrinsic equality of rights of all persons, without distinction of color or condition,—a fallacy which must as certainly lead to amalgamation and the Africanization of the Southern States, and to negro supremacy, as that night follows day. If any of our Conservative brethren want to travel that road, we shall be sorry to part with them, but we shall nevertheless bid them farewell.

The Cincinnati Plaindealer says the Democrats of that City won about $50,000 in cash from Republicans, who bet that Hayes would have a majority ranging from 10,000 to 20,000.

CENTRAL AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

The Ninth Annual Fair of the Central Agricultural Society of North Carolina, at Henderson, closed on yesterday, after three days of unusually gratifying and interesting experience. The Society, the Executive Committee, the Marshals, and the managers, generally, have just reason to congratulate themselves upon the success which has crowned their energetic and laudable labors to revive their annual exhibitions and to build up anew the agricultural, mechanical and other material interests of their section of the State. Under pressing discouragements, and notwithstanding the scarcity of money, the general depression among our people, and other drawbacks, they have attained a success, in the recent Fair, which serves to demonstrate what could and would be accomplished, were our people relieved of the burdens and cares which hang over them.

Our opportunities only enabled the Junior Editor to be present on the second day of the Fair, (Thursday.) On the opening day, upwards of two hundred articles had been listed by the efficient Secretary of the Society, Geo. Badger Harris, Esq. The number was gradually increased by accessions, as the exhibition proceeded, and embraced agricultural implements, mechanical tools, products of the farm and the garden, fruits, cattle, poultry, draught and blooded horses, &c.—to say nothing of many charming specimens of the handiwork of the fair daughters of Granville, Franklin and Warren, and numerous excellent samples of domestic house-wifery.

In the Agricultural Department, Messrs. Marsh & Co., Harriss & Cowand, Taylor, Martin & Co., and G. W. Rowland & Co., of Norfolk, and Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co. of this City, were well represented. In that of fruits, Messrs. Westbrook & Co., of Guilford, made a splendid showing.

The stock, particularly in the line of trotting horses, was of a superior quality, and the cattle on exhibition, though few in number, were apparently of excellent breeds and varieties.

Our stay on the grounds, on Thursday, was necessarily circumscribed. During our brief sojourn, however, they presented a stirring and animated spectacle. The attendance was very large, embracing many of the best citizens of Granville and the adjoining Counties, with quite a number from this City, Petersburg and Norfolk, and a large array of beauty and refinement. The orderly and highly respectable throngs appeared to have cast away all thoughts of care and trouble for the nonce, and seemed bent on enjoying themselves. The Band from this City, attached to the 40th Regiment U. S. C. T., discoursed lively music.—The Ladies' Bazaar and Eating Saloon, under the direction of the ladies of the Episcopal Church of Henderson, held out the most inviting attractions to the crowd, and were liberally patronized. To say nothing of their intrinsic allurements, it was impossible to resist the inducements presented by the charming genii who presided over these happy features of the exhibition. In one part of the grounds, our young and energetic friend Capt. Miller, representing the firm of Mitchell, Allen & Co., was engaged in sinking one of the Labor-Saving Pumps; while, in another, Capt. Hanes was reasing a pile of combustibles, preparatory to a trial of the celebrated Fire Extinguisher.—Various trials of the speed of horses were progressing over the course; and the tout ensemble was bustling, gay and pleasing.

At 12 o'clock, the annual address was delivered by Col. J. I. Scales,—the orator having been introduced to the large audience, in a few neat remarks, by L. C. Edwards, Esq., of Oxford. The address was an eloquent and patriotic production, delivered in capital style and abounding in many excellent sentiments. Discussing the physical interests of the State and people in connection with the question of reconstruction,—upon which they must depend, at last, for encouragement and development,—his counsels were timely, sensible and well digested. To the objection which may be urged, that there was too much of what may be called politics in the address, it may be replied that the only acknowledged road to our material recuperation, agricultural and commercial,—State and individual,—lies in our speedy restoration to our just and rightful position in the Union, under the Constitution. The address evidently struck the popular chord, as was evidenced by the most unmistakable indications of approval.

We regret that our stay at Henderson was not sufficiently protracted, to enable us to make a minute memorandum of the many valuable, useful and ornamental articles that were presented, and to do justice to the exhibitors. The awards of the intelligent and laborious committees, when made, however, will give credit where it is due, and we shall take pleasure in publishing them.

We acknowledge our obligations to many friends for kind attentions. Our cotemporary, Mr. Furman, of the Index, was especially courteous and obliging.

MR. GREELEY THINKS THE RADICAL PARTY WILL GO UNDER, AND IS RESIGNED.

The New York Tribune, of Tuesday, contains the following:

"If our party and its nominal antagonist shall stand substantially on the same platform in the next Presidential struggle, we foresee that the result will be much like that of the Scott canvass in 1852, and are quite resigned to the dispensation. Personally, we have an easier time, with far less anxiety and trouble, when our party is out of power. Then we are not bored to death with importunities to write office-begging letters to the President, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Collector of the Port, &c., &c. When the public money is stolen, (as stolen it is and will be,) we can pitch into "the powers that be" for putting thieves into office or keeping them in—an easier task than to defend them. So, whenever both parties get substantially upon the same platform, we know that ours will go under, and we contemplate that result with serene philosophy."

General Sheridan's reception in Boston cost that city $50,000.

ANOTHER "RALEIGH-GRAM."

We had hoped that the days of "Raleighgrams" were over. The following, however, shows that we were mistaken. We clip this from our exchanges:

RALEIGH, Oct. 16.—Strenuous efforts are being made by influential leading men to revive the old Democratic party, for the purpose of co-operating with and encouraging the Northern Democracy in its endeavors to defeat the Radicals. Some of the most prominent men of the State are the moving spirits in this effort. From all appearances, the movement bids fair to succeed.

The above will be news to "some of the most prominent men of the State," who belonged to the Democratic party. If there is one word of the above true, we are wholly ignorant of it. We have consulted some of the best informed gentlemen of this city, of both the old parties, who know nothing of it, and who do not believe it.

So far as we know, the Conservatives of the State, of both the old parties, were never more united than now, in their determination to defeat Radicalism, without the aid of any party trammels or influences, except by the spontaneous combination of all the Conservative elements in the State. As to the revival of the old Whig party at this time in North Carolina, hinted at in some quarters, we know it to be palpably false and without foundation. We believe it to be equally false in regard to the Democratic party. So far as we are informed, all Conservative men of intelligence or influence, in either of the old parties, are opposed to the revival of old party lines in this State, until we are restored to peace and Union. At least, this is our position, and we believe it to be the position of the Conservative men of the State.

We know, too, that the Radicals of this City are pleased at the above telegram, and will do all they can to promote its objects. Nothing could more certainly secure a Radical triumph in this State, than the division of the Conservatives. This is so palpable to every man of sense, that we look upon the above telegram as a Radical canard.

EXTRACT from a letter of a Southern gentlemen, now at the North. The writer is a deep thinker,—and certainly not very hopeful:

"—— Oct. 13, 1867.

I have seen, as yet, no causes assigned for the result of the recent elections; nor am I able to conjecture what it is that has produced so great a change in the popular votes of Pennsylvania and Ohio. In the latter State, I hope, it was caused by an innate repugnance to negro equality, though I am told by those acquainted with Ohio, that they have never observed any such feeling there.

The history of 4,000 years furnishes many examples of enmity between the white and black races. From the time of Nimrod, the first King, and a descendant of Ham, down to the Republic of Liberia, the negroes, wherever they have had power, have been unwilling to share that power with the whites. By divine interposition, the white race was freed from the tyranny of the sons of Ham, in the memorable instance of scattering the nations; and, at a subsequent period, by the command to Pharaoh, "let my people go." The white race then moved up from Egyt into Palestine, and was surrounded by the Jebusites, Hivites, Amorites, Canaanites, and others—all sons of Ham.

Once more, God expressly commanded the white race to keep themselves seperate from, and to hold no more communion with, those sons of Ham.

In latter times, we have the History of Spain, St. Domingo, and Liberia, to show that the security and happiness of the races depend upon their separation. The Moors were expelled from Spain after a war of 800 years. In St. Domingo and Liberia the negroes have excluded the whites by legislation from political power; and they will do so wherever they have the power.

Can it be that the masess of the North have intelligence enough to take warning from these facts, and will interpose to save the country from the madness and wickedness of these leaders? I trow not."

SLAVERY IN A NEW GUISE.—On yesterday morning a party of thirty six negro men, who had hired themselves to work on the Manassas Gap railroad, congregated at the Orange and Alexandria depot, to take their departure for the scene of their expected labors, under the care and control of Mr. Orlando Brown. Just before the train left, the negro Sam Kelsoe, who appears to control the Loyal League at this point, and is a Radical candidate for the convention, made a speech to the crowd, in which he threatened them that if they went away before the elections, they would be visited with the displeasure and vengeance of the League. All but eight or nine of the negroes at once and positively declined to leave, and the crowd that had gathered at the depot, in the full expectation of departure, dispersed at the mere intimation of the League's objection. Mr. Brown offered to bring the whole party back to town in time for the election, but this assurance did not satisfy Kelsoe, and the negroes were mere passive puppets in his hands.—Lynchburg Republican.

IMPEACHMENT BELOW PAR.—The impeachment scheme is not being pressed at present as it was some time ago, and there seems now no more prospect of its success than if it had never been broached. The Ohio Republicans in particular appear to have turned against it with great force. The two leading journals of the State, the Cincinnati Gazette and the Cincinnati Commercial, which have heretofore favored impeachment, have discussed the subject within the last few days in such a way as to show that the change of opinion has been very decided, and that they are now fixed and determined in opposition to the project. —New York Times.

"So far as we have returns, the Constitutional Amendment runs steadily behind the Republican candidates, but not far behind. We estimate that 200,000 Republicans have voted for it, while perhaps 10,000 have voted against it."

The above is contained in the New York Tribune's notice of the Ohio election. In Hamilton county, where the Republican candidates have 13,00 majority, the amendment is beaten 5,000. In Gallia county, where the Republicans have 95 majority, it is defeated by 900. In Montgomery county, where the Democrats have 700 majority, the amendment is beaten 1,700; and so it is all over the State. While Hayes is probably elected, the amendment is beaten fifty or sixty thousand votes. The Tribune thinks this is "not far behind," but people generally will disagree with it.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HIT 'EM AGAIN.—We think that the Union party would have polled three or four thousand more votes if Senator Wade had kept quiet and Senator Chandler, of Michigan, had stayed at home."—Cleveland Leader (Radical).

BEHIND THE SCENES.

[SCENE NO. 1.]

(Present: X. P. G., the Heir Apparent, and Black Hawk—the latter sitting in a corner intently reading a paper, wrong side up.)

X. P. G.—Oh! that I was Governor again, Joseph! People ain't afraid of me now, as they used to be.

H. A.—You sometimes talk like a Governor, though, old fel. "Well cut their coulds before 1868." That was said right royally. A live Governor could not have done it better.

X. P. G.—Cut a fiddlestick!! We may have to cut another sort of stick before long; these elections are ominous.

H. A.—Well, things do look rather blue, I admit. But nil desperandum—as old Jeff used to say. If you had shown the pluck of a half-grown gosling, you would have been on this blessed day a sure enough Governor.

X. P. G.—Joseph, my son! Remember the commandments. "Honor thy father and thy mother, for this day have I begotten thee," and so forth.

H. A.—Look a here, boss! You don't go to Church now, and can't quote Scripture. You sometimes, indeed, preach well enough in your way, but do you practice as well? I respectfully suggest that you talk rather too much about holy things—considering.

X. P. G.—Well, well, Joseph, my first-born! Let by-gones be by gones, whether Windy Billy is willing or not. But how could I have staid Governor, my boy?

H. A.—Easy as three shakes of a sheep's tail, your Honor! "Fight it out on this line," old stupid! "Fight it out on this line, if it takes all Summer." That was the text—death or victory!

X. P. G.—Fight—the devil! They would'nt lie still and let me fight 'em. Ten to one the rascals would have fout back.—I could'nt fight, Joseph. Could you?

H. A.—But you were in—and was'nt that nine-tenths of the battle? Oh, if you had plucked up like the "glorious old Patriot" of Tennessee, you would have swept all before you! Why didn't you carry the election at the point of the bayonet, as I urged you?

X. P. G.—Why, Joseph my son! who would have fought my battles? I hoped the people would fight 'em for me, and cuss 'em! they wouldn't. I am a man of peace myself—I am. I couldn't fight all creation—could I?

H. A.—No, old shake-knees! I suppose you could not. But were'nt you Governor? Where were your mellish? and the Federal army—sent here to protect you? and your precious kinky-heads? And see what you are come to! every body spitting at you, and some doing even worse than that—and you always whining over Bro. Pell, and that rebellious rascal Vance, and Bledsoe, and old "Cuss," and a score more, who run you crazy because you believe they are as stark mad as yourself about the Governorship, and are trying to out-wit you, when I dare say not a soul of them ever thought or cared a copper about it, till you put it into their heads. Where is all your cunning, old gentleman?

X. P. G.—Joseph, mine anointed! thou art a rash young man! and moreover, irreverent towards him who begat thee? Is it for mortals to be always wise? Wast thou ever crowned for thy wisdom? Hast thou any memory of that floral wreath so especially woven and intertwined, and so exquisitely perfumed, for thine own wise head? And when thou smeltest thereof, didst thou wax very angry, my son, and "fight it out on that line"—bravely—or didst thou incontinently withdraw to thine own private apartment and commit thyself to calm and pious contemplation? It has been slanderously said of thee that thou sworest awfully—but didst thou fight? Thy threatenings were indeed terrible.

Black Hawk.—Look a-here, Holden! You told me you had upset the Rebels—and made them smell —— (something.) A pretty crow your game cock is giving—with his heels up'ards.

X. P. G.—Hawk! You are a cussed fool! Turn over the paper and you'll see.

B. H.—(Reversing the Standard) Ah, sure enough—something better so; but, game cock indeed! He is much like the Irishman's old muscovy. "Luck at his fut. The divil hisself could'nt thrip 'um up.—Look at his bill. He'll hould on forever"—and did a true game ever carry such a belly and tail?

X. P. G.—Hush, Hawk! The less we say about tails—the better. As my own has by some accident been curtailed, no North Carolinian shall sport a caudal appendage if I can help it. Look at that three tailed Bashaw at the Capitol. How offensively he struts! They shall be snipped, Hawk—"they shall!"

B. H.—Leave him a little one—Gus. Don't let em all be lopped off short—and then drus up, as yourn is. Let old Jonathan wag one stump at least—which is more'n you can do—old fel! Youin aint adzackly visible, ha! ha! ha!

X. P. G.—Hawk! I only called you a cussed fool just now. That was mild language—too mild; and now, to your teeth I pronounce you to be a—(B. H. doubling his fist, and facing X. P. G.)—no better than you should be. You must excuse my passion, my dear friend. I ——

B. H.—Nuf ced. And I only say in return, my affectionate friend, that you allers could work well enough in the harness—for others. And have done pretty well in making other people Governors and Senators, &c., but when you come to work for yourself you are just the biggest dunderhead on this side of Sancho Panza's Island.—Good bye, old Bluster!—Don't grin at me—please!—nor try to wag your tail—for you can't! Ha! ha!

(Exit Hawk.)

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THE ELECTION IN THIS STATE.

It will be seen by the following telegram, received on yesterday by Gov. Worth, from Gen. Canby, that the election in this State, on the subject of a Convention, and for delegates to the Convention, will be held on the 19th and 20th prox.

We await, with considerable interest, the details of the order, fixing the apportionment of representation, &c. They may, possibly, reach us by telegraph to day.

CHARLESTON, S. C. Oct. 18, 1867.

To the Governor of N. C.:

The Election in your State will be ordered, to-day, for the 19th. and 20th. of November proximo.

Ed. R. S. CANBY,
Maj. Gen. Com'g.

RALLY CONSERVATIVES! BRING OUT YOUR CANDIDATES!

Gen. Canby orders that the election for a State Convention and for delegates to the same shall take place simultaneously, in all the Counties of the State, on the 19th and 20th of November next.

It is highly important that the Conservatives should take immediate steps to organize in every County in the State, and to bring out the very best men they can, for the State Convention. Every man must be urged to be at the election, and to do his full duty. Let every Conservative bring all his influence to bear in causing a Conservative triumph throughout the State.

RALLY, CONSERVATIVES!—We are requested to announce that the Conservative Union men of Johnston County will hold a meeting in Smithfield, on Saturday the 26th, inst., (October) to nominate candidates for the Convention. Let all true Union Conservative men be present.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Labor-Saving Pumps, Agricultural Implements, &c.: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

Important sale of Lots and Land, at Durham's Depot: James K. Redmon.

Best Goshen Butter, Superior Factory Cheese: Pulliam, Jones & Co., Wholesale Grocers.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Nelson Simpson, alias Nick Rogers, colored, and Guilford Chavers and Jerry Simpson, colored, charged with making an assault upon Catherine Foster, colored, and threatening to kill her and her children in her own house, pointing a gun in the window of her house, were returned to the County Court. The case was also reported to the Military authorities, as a violation of Gen. Sickles' order.

ELECTIONS will be held in the following States on the 5th. of November ensuing, viz: New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Kansas, Nevada and Missouri.

THE ELECTIONS in Virginia take place on Tuesday next.

CALIFORNIA JUDICIAL ELECTION.—On Wednesday California held an election for the choice of a Judge of the Supreme Court, to hold office for ten years, county judges in all the counties for four years, justices of the peace for two years, and a superintendent of public instruction to serve for four years. The offices of supreme judge and superintendent of public instruction are important ones, and the result of the election will be awaited with great interest. The candidates for supreme judge are John Curry, Republican, and Royal T. Sprague, Democrat; and the candidates for superintendent of public instruction are John Swett, Republican, and O. P. Fitzgerald, Democrat. The Republican candidates are the present incumbents of the offices.—[Fitzgerald is an old Lynchburg printer, having learned his trade in the Republican office. He is now, however, a distinguished Methodist preacher.]

THE SHERMAN AND JOHNSON TREATY.—Every one can understand that if General Sherman's treaty with General Johnson had been approved by the Administration, or by Gen. Grant, all the States would have been in the Union in June, 1865, the country would have been placed on the road to prosperity, negro suffrage and negro equality would have been kept in the background, and all the troubles we have since had upon the question of reconstruction would have been avoided. That document recognized as much of State rights as the northern people are willing to concede, and may yet be the platform of a Presidential party. We believe that Sherman could be elected President with that and nothing else for his platform. Ex-President Buchanan recently had a conversation with a newspaper correspondent, who says:

"He [Mr. Buchanan] thinks that the terms that were agreed on by Generals Joe Johnson and Sherman at the time of the surrender were the wisest that could have been followed."

Slowly the public mind will come to the same conclusion.

AN Ohio editor says the Radicals were routed last Tuesday, horse, foot, and quadroons."

THE PRESIDENT'S VIEWS OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION—GEN. SCHOFIELD GETS THE BENEFIT OF THEM.

On Saturday last a very large number of gentlemen and quite a number of ladies called upon the President—many to pay their respects. Among those who called on official business, was Maj. Gen. Schofield.—A gentleman who had no official business with the President, but who, as a "Conservative Republican," merely made a friendly call, informs us that he found Mr. Johnson in a very agreeable mood. He discoursed quite freely upon the political situation. He did not seem to be surprised by the result of the recent elections. He referred to the fact that in several of his printed speeches he had said that the people would in good time teach their public servants the right way; that the people could be trusted, &c. "They often exhibit more wisdom," he remarked, "than Presidents, Congresses, or Conventions." His attention was called to an analysis of the recent election in Ohio, where two great parties presented each its ticket. The people looked at them both discriminately, and took the soldier standard-bearer (Hayes) of the Republican party—thus seemingly rebuking the Democrats for nominating a Vallandigham man like Thurman, instead of a soldier, and accepted and elected the Legislature of the Democratic and Conservative party, to prevent the re-election of a Radical like Mr. Wade, thus repudiating the two extremes in politics; and then, at the same election, they buried the disturbing question of negro equality beneath a majority of 50,000 votes. The President listened to this statement, and said:

"It is a remarkable fact. It is the logic of events. It is the true lesson of the election. And what makes the fact still more remarkable is that this wonderful discrimination was made by the people themselves at the polls, and that these extraordinary results were obtained in the face of the misrepresentations that were constantly made in the press and upon the stump, and, furthermore, that the government of the State was in the hands of the Radicals, and the treasure of their wealthy men was poured out like water to aid them in carrying the State. The people have conquered in spite of these appliances, and have pointed out the right way for others, disregarding the two dangerous extremes, and taking the safe, high, conservative ground as laid down in the August Philadelphia Convention of 1866 upon the Constitution, for the preservation of the States, and in favor of pure loyalty and a united and free country."

During this conversation, a very brief synopsis of which we have given, the President remarked that he thought the lesson taught by the people of Ohio, as indicated above, was correct, and he had been and should be guided by it. He said the thousand and one reports set afloat about what he was about to do in re-organizing his Cabinet were unauthorized and untrue. Whatever he did in that direction would be the subject of careful thought and for the best interests of the public good, so far as it is in his power to reach such a result.

We give the above statement, with the consent of the gentleman who held the conversation with the President, as a matter of interesting news.—National Republican, 14th.

THE MEETING ON TUESDAY.—The meeting which met at the Court House in this place on Tuesday last, and to which we briefly alluded on that day, was a most respectable and harmonious assemblage of the good and true men from every part of the County. The gentlemen nominated received the votes of a majority of all present, and all ought to be satisfied. With the nomination of these gentlemen we are well satisfied—better selections in view of their qualifications could not have been made. We, in common with many others, preferred that one of the candidates should have been taken from the town and one from the country, out of deference merely to the wish of the country people, yet we are satisfied that the conservative men from the country will lay aside all prejudice and cheerfully support the excellent and worthy gentlemen who have been selected as candidates.

We hoist the names of Messrs. Robbins and Holmes to day, and shall keep them at our mast head until victory perches upon the Conservative banner at the election to take place in November, as is believed.—Old North State.

THE JUDICIARY.—The Military Governments are gradually working out their legitimate results. The semblance of civil Governments are gradually, but surely, disappearing. We learn that during the present week a judgment of the Superior Court of Brunswick has been set aside by the military, because the jury was not drawn in conformity with the order of General Canby, although no objection was urged during the trial.

In another column we publish the resignation of Judge Handy, of the Supreme Court of Mississippi. An upright, faithful and learned officer, he finds it incompatible with the dignity and independence of his position to continue in it any longer.

It is this condition of affairs with us which has warmed into life the freemen of the North. Its continuance will only change the solemn protest into a specific demand that tyrannies shall cease and civil law and national peace be restored.—Wil. Journal.

A SOBERING EFFECT.—Senator Howard, of Michigan, wrote a letter recently in favor of impeachment, which he was persuaded to withhold from publication till after the elections of Tuesday. It is likely now to be suppressed altogether. The truth is, that the result of the elections has had a suddenly sobering influence, like a bucket of cold water on the head of a drunken man, and the inclination now will be to moderate and reasonable counsels. The scheme of Butler and Wade to depose the President first and impeach him afterwards will no more be heard of, and impeachment itself will only be named by the more impulsive politicians. The scheme for confiscation, for reconstructing the governments of Maryland and Kentucky, and for establishing equal suffrage by law of Congress in all the States, have all gone by the board.—Springfield Republican, [Rep.]

SCOTLAND AND IMMIGRATION.—Mr. Alexander Williamson has just returned from a visit to Scotland. While there he visited several of the best agricultural sections of the Lothians, and from frequent conversations he had with the farmer "hands," male and female, he found that they were most anxious to better their condition and prospects by emigrating to the United States, but the drawback to such a consummation was the want of means, their humble pittance in the shape of wages and "kind" not permitting them to put anything in store for contingencies. From their proverbial thrift, intelligence, domestic discipline, and thorough agricultural knowledge and experience, there is no nationality that would sooner aid in the material development of this country, and in fostering and maintaining a healthful public sentiment. It would be well, therefore, that measures were promptly taken for their transportation and immediate employment on landing on our shores.—Washington Star.

A scurrilous contemporary suggests that a Confederate General has made an Imbodent application to be registered.—World.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

REPORTED IMPORTANT DECLARATIONS OF THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18, M.

In a well authenticated conversation, the President expressed himself to the following effect, regarding impeachment:

He apprehended that the Radical leaders would become more desperate than ever, and hesitate at nothing to accomplish their revolutionary purposes.

Referring to suspension before conviction, he expressed his determination to resist with all the powers which the Constitution affords for its own protection.

On the Cabinet, he said circumstances necessitated a change, and, before the meeting of Congress, the change would be made. He will neither consult nor be governed by party cliques, but draw around him men of ability, nerve and patriotism.

Alluding to Gen. Sherman, he remarked that "he will be here between the 10th. and 17th. of November, in ample time for the discharge of any duty, however responsible, that may devolve upon him."

NEGRO OUTRAGE IN BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18, M.

Twelve or fifteen shots were fired from a negro military company to-day, killing a white boy instantly. The Coroner's verdict was: "Death occasioned by a musket ball fired from the rear rank of a negro military company, supposed to be the Butler Guard, and that it was totally without cause or provocation."

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18, P. M.

There was a full Cabinet meeting to-day.

The Customs for the week ending on the 12th, were $2,938,000.

The Secretary of the Treasury has made a demand for reclamation on persons from whom the Treasury has recently received about $80,000 worth of alleged 7-30 counterfeit notes.

The Department claims that in the course of business the understanding always is that until notes, etc., are favorably examined here, they are at the risk of the parties transmitting them. Should the parties refuse to make satisfaction for counterfeit notes, the Treasury will take the advice of the Attorney General in order to determine their action.

Revenue to-day, $354 000.

The Retrenchment Committee is overhauling the printing Bureau of the Treasury.

Eleven hundred thousand dollars worth of questioned seven-thirty notes have been traced.

RICHMOND MATTERS.

RICHMOND, Oct. 18—P. M.

Gen. Schofield has sustained the decision of the Board of Registers in Gen. Imboden's case.

The Conservatives are full of hope. Never has there been more energy shown in a canvass than is now being displayed by both sides. Each is sanguine of a victory, and both are doing their best.

The moderate negroes are dissatisfied with the Conservative nominations. They say if Sturdivant and Evans were dropped and two negroes substituted the ticket would carry, and a torch-light procession would crown the triumph, but as it is they will vote for the Hunnicutt party.

A grand Hunnicutt meeting is now being addressed by old Hunnicutt.

The Conservatives are, also, holding a meeting.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examined its formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases, and feel so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, calling at her trials. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a last hope, which she did—imagine my surprise, my gratification, when I found her appetite returning, slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. M. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last six years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum"—with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,

W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Son's make, and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.
CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 25 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in store, and open for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have to-day sold as good for cash.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

DAILY SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1867.

PASSING AWAY.

Was it the chime of a tiny bell,
That came so sweet to my dreaming ear,
Like the silvery tones of a fairy's shell,
That he winds on the beach so mellow and clear,
When the winds and the waves lie together asleep;
And the moon and the fairy are watching the deep—
She dispensing her silvery light,
And he his notes as silvery quite,
While the boatman listens and ships his oar,
To catch the music that comes from the shore?—
Hark! the notes on my ear that play
Are set to words: as they float, they say,
"Passing away! Passing away!"

But, no, it was not a fairy's shell,
Blown on the beach, so mellow and clear:
Nor was it the tongue of a silver bell
Striking the hours, that fell on my ear,
As I lay in my dream; yet was it a chime
That told of the flow of the stream of Time;
For a beautiful clock from the ceiling hung,
And a plump little girl, for a pendulum, swung;
(As you've sometimes seen, in a little ring
That hangs in his cage, a canary bird swing:)
And she held to her bosom a budding bouquet;
And as she enjoy'd it, she seem'd to say,
"Passing away! Passing away!"

Oh, how bright were the wheels, that told
Of the lapse of time as they moved around slow!
And the hands, as they swept o'er the dial of gold,
Seem'd to point to the girl below.
And lo! she had changed;—in a few short hours,
Her bouquet had become a garland of flowers,
That she held in her outstretch'd hands, and flung
This way and that, as she, dancing, swung
In the fulness of grace and womanly pride,
That told me she soon was to be a bride;
Yet then, when expecting her happiest day,
In the same sweet voice I heard her say,
"Passing away! Passing away!"

While I gazed on that fair one's cheek, a shade
Of thought, or care, stole softly over,
Like that by a cloud in a summer's day made,
Looking down on a field of blossoming clover.
The rose yet lay on her cheek, but its flush
Had something lost of its brilliant blush;
And the light in her eye, and the light on the wheels,
That marched so calmly round above her,
Was a little dimm'd—as when evening steals
Upon noon's hot face;—yet one could'nt but love her;
For she look'd like a mother whose first babe lay
Rock'd on the breast, as she swung all day;
And she seem'd in the same silver tone to say,
"Passing away! Passing away!"

While yet I look'd, what a change there came!
Her eye was quench'd and her cheek was wan;
Stooping and staff'd was her wither'd frame,
Yet just as busily swung she on:
The garland beneath her had fallen to dust;
The wheels above her were eaten with rust;
The hands, that over the dial swept,
Grew crook'd and tarnished, but on they kept;
And still there came that silver tone
From the shrivel'd lips of the toothless crone,
(Let me never forget, to my dying day,
The tone or the burden of that lay)—
"Passing away! Passing away!"

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD

NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement, and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.

H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.

PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.
Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE

Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registertration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

Which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to the Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That in all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."
